

FURTHER RESOURCES

for

A History of Hope: UNC & Chapel Hill, Part 1

An Exhibit of the Chapel Hill Historical Society
@ the Orange County Historical Museum

We cordially invite you to enjoy our past programs available on this website - and to join us for our upcoming ones! Please also explore "Resources & Links." There is so much info!

1. Listen to Danita Mason-Hogans' TED Talk: Why the Way We Tell Stories & Document History Is a Social Justice Issue
2. Read the article, Enslaved, Escheated, Erased.
3. Mike Ogle's articles uncover Chapel Hill's history: Welcome to Stone Walls - by Mike Ogle.
4. View UNC Libraries' online exhibit Slavery and the Making of the University. They also have a series of blog posts: Exploring the History and Legacy of Slavery at the University of North Carolina – For the Record.
5. Explore Chapel Hill's history through exhibits and podcasts at Chapel Hill Community History. And, if you can, visit the list of places that commemorate our history.
6. Learn about singer and songwriter, Elizabeth Cotten
7. See some of Chapel Hill's historic homes at Preservation Chapel Hill.
8. Explore the virtual museum of archeology by UNC's Research Laboratories of Archeology: Ancient North Carolinians.
9. Walk "Beneath Our Feet," Archaeological Walking Tour of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, virtually or on foot.
10. Listen to living histories of Chapel Hill's African-American residents From the Rock Wall.

more

11. Take a tour of campus with the UNC American Indian Center: Excerpts from the Native Narrative Campus Tour - UNC Libraries. And, with UNC Visitors Center's Sense of Place Tour (which is not an admissions tour!).

12. Stroll Carrboro with this walking tour and map.
13. Visit the mural of Chapel Hill's African American Trailblazers.
14. Watch the video by The Washington Post: How the 'Lost Cause' narrative became American history
15. Learn about the Barbee Family cemetery: A new partnership
16. Examine the history of women students: Climbing the Hill: Women in the History of UNC.
17. Celebrate the contributions of Black women throughout Chapel Hill's history: I Was Still Singing.
18. Read this article about the Old Well and enjoy the photos! The Old Well you never knew.
19. Learn about Old East, the oldest building on a public university campus in the USA, and more: Re-examining Old East. This article has great links to further information.
20. Become a member in the Chapel Hill Historical Society here. We hope you will join in our efforts!

And, you may wish to re-visit the following that were featured in the exhibit's QR codes...

- ★ Carolina, Then and Now: Video Carolina's campus over the centuries.
- ★ Carolina then and now article.
- ★ Video on "Davies' Babies," saplings planted across our state to celebrate UNC's 200th birthday: Limbs, leaves and a legacy.
- ★ About the First Indian Student at UNC, Henry Owl
- ★ When-freedom-came-to-chapel-hill, an article by Mike Ogle in Stone Walls.
- ★ Midway: A Virtual Tour of the Black Financial District of Chapel Hill
- ★ Dance to Kay Kyser's big band music!